We make it work.

We can repair in-store across our multi-national network or in your office/facility. Both corporate liable or individual liable assets.

We fix it all.

We'll fix anything with a power button - whether you've got a cracked smartphone, a water-damaged tablet or a malfunctioning laptop, we have the skills and expertise to fix it all. Every repair starts with a thorough diagnostic and should something go wrong once you leave our store, all of our repairs are backed with a 90-day warranty. Let UBREAKIFIX keep your business's hardware running right.

We repair it right.

- Continent-wide network of over 430 stores and remote technicians – and growing
- OEM certifications & partnerships means access to better training, parts, and repairs.
- Industry-leading customer experience

Customer experience means everything to us.

Net Promoter Score is an index ranging from -100 to 100. It measures the willingness of customers to recommend a company's products or services to others. So, how did we do? Pretty good.
